

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL - LICENSING DIVISION

Maltreatment of Minors Mandated Reporting

Family Child Care

What to report

- Maltreatment includes egregious harm, neglect, physical abuse, sexual abuse, substantial child endangerment, threatened injury, and mental injury. (Minnesota Statutes, section 260E.03) Maltreatment must be reported if you have witnessed or have reason to believe that a child is being or has been maltreated within the last three years.

Who must report

- If you work in a licensed program, you are a “mandated reporter” and are legally required (mandated) to report maltreatment. You cannot shift the responsibility of reporting to anyone else.
- In addition, people who are not mandated reporters may voluntarily report maltreatment.

Where to report

- If you know or suspect that a child is in immediate danger, call 9-1-1.
- If your report does not involve possible maltreatment, but does involve possible violations of Minnesota Statutes or Rules that govern the family child care program, you should call the licensing unit at your local county social services agency at .
- Incidents of suspected maltreatment of children occurring at a family child care program, a child foster care program, within a family, or in the community should be reported to the child protection unit at your local county social services agency at or local law enforcement at .

When to report

- Mandated reporters must make a report to one of the agencies listed above immediately (as soon as possible, but no longer than 24 hours).

Information to report

- A report to any of the above agencies should contain enough information to identify the child involved, any persons responsible for the maltreatment (if known), and the nature and extent of the maltreatment and/or possible licensing violations. For reports concerning suspected maltreatment occurring within a licensed family child care program, if known, the report should include any actions taken by the program in response to the incident.

Failure to report

- A mandated reporter who knows or has reason to believe a child is or has been maltreated and fails to report is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- In addition, a mandated reporter who fails to report serious or recurring maltreatment may be disqualified from a position allowing direct contact with, or access to, persons receiving services from programs, organizations, and/or agencies that are required to have individuals complete a background study by the Department of Human Services as listed in Minnesota Statutes, section 245C.03.

Retaliation prohibited

- An employer of any mandated reporter is prohibited from retaliating against (getting back at):
 - an employee for making a report in good faith; or
 - a child who is the subject of the report.
- If an employer retaliates against an employee, the employer may be liable for damages and/or penalties.

Provide policy to parents

This reporting policy must be provided to the parents of all children at the time of enrollment in the family child care program and must be made available upon request. The definitions section (p. 2-5) is optional to provide to parents.

The following pages have definitions that may be helpful for understanding the policy above.
