3. License holder and tax identification information: The license holder is the business entity that is responsible for the license. The Minnesota Human Services Licensing Act makes a distinction between “individual” and “nonindividual” license holders.

An individual license holder is generally a sole owner or sole proprietorship where the business is owned and run by one or more person(s). The license holder is not a corporation, partnership, voluntary association, or other organization or government entity, and there is no legal distinction between the owner and the business. If you are applying as an individual license holder, you must list your full legal name as the license holder.

A nonindividual license holder means that you have created a business organization such as a corporation in order to make a legal distinction between the owner(s) and the business. If you are applying as a nonindividual license holder, you must list the business name as it appears on your tax forms or as it is listed with the Secretary of State’s business registration.

Both individual and nonindividual license holders are required to provide tax identification (ID) information including Federal Employer ID Number (FEIN), and/or Minnesota Tax ID Number, if you have either. Individual applicants and license holders must also provide their Social Security Number (SSN). Tax ID information is not public; however, DHS is required to provide the tax ID and the SSN of each license holder to the Minnesota Department of Revenue.

Under the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act, we must advise you that:

- i. This information may be used to deny the issuance of a license, or to revoke a license, if you owe the Minnesota Department of Revenue delinquent taxes, penalties, or interest.
- ii. DHS will only provide the tax identification information to the Minnesota Department of Revenue. However, under the Federal Exchange of Information Act, the Department of Revenue is allowed to supply this information to the Internal Revenue Service.
