

Sourcewell Fusion Point Task Group Applicant

TENNESSEN WARNING

Sourcewell is a government entity and is subject to the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act (Minnesota Statutes Chapter 13). All data collected and maintained by Sourcewell is presumed to be public with some exceptions. government data is public unless a state or federal law says that the data is not public.

By proceeding with this application, you understand that:

- The application requests personal information which could be used to identify you and which may be classified as confidential or private data on individuals.
- Sourcewell will use the information you provide to evaluate you for a potential seat on the Fusion Point Task Group, and for other business purposes related to the Fusion Point Task Group.
- You are not legally required to provide this information.
- You are providing this information because you wish to be considered for an open seat on the Fusion Point Task Group.
- You can refuse to provide any of the requested information, but refusal could impact your ability to be considered for and selected to an open seat on the Fusion Point Task Group.
- You may request a copy of your application and you can authorize others to receive a copy of your application.
- Your application will be available to current Fusion Point Task Group members, Sourcewell staff working with the Fusion Point Task Group or to any government entities authorized by law.
- Your application data is not available to the general public. If you are selected to an open seat on the Fusion Point Task Group, your name and other information about you may become public.

By signing below, I consent to Sourcewell's use of my individual data as outlined above.