

Sourcewell Community Solutions Recognition Award
TENNESSEN WARNING

Sourcewell is a government entity and is subject to the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act (Minnesota Statutes Chapter 13). All data collected and maintained by Sourcewell is presumed to be public with some exceptions. Government data is public unless a state or federal law says that the data is not public.

By proceeding with this nomination, you understand that:

- This nomination requests personal information about the nominee (and potentially the nominator) which could be used to identify individuals and which may be classified as confidential or private data on individuals.
- Sourcewell will use the information you provide to evaluate the nominee for an award, and for other business purposes related to the award process.
- You are not legally required to provide this information.
- You are providing this information because you wish to nominate an individual for an award.
- You can refuse to provide any of the requested information, but refusal could impact the nominee's ability to be considered for and selected for an award.
- You may request a copy of this nomination, and you can authorize others to receive a copy of this nomination.
- This nomination will be available to Sourcewell staff and any review committees or groups involved in the award selection process, as well as to any government entities authorized by law.
- This nomination data is not available to the general public. If the nominee is selected for an award, their name and other information about them may become public.

By submitting this nomination, I consent to Sourcewell's use of the provided data as outlined above.
